HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having seen the "New Patent Shaft Coupling," invented by H. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that for our part we look upon it as the most simple and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and in the most easily and speedily manner. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling noise which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO AUGUST 7.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided to assign Supervisor Harrison, of New Jersey to temporary duties in West Virginia for the purpose of making a thorough investigation of Revenue affairs in that State.

Information is received here that an expedition of about 200 men, which left a port on the coast of Florida on the 4th inst., has arrived in Cuba. It is stated that the courier who accompanied the expedition had returned to Florida and telegraphed to a party in this city.

Admiral Dahlgren resigned his position as Chief of the Ordnance Department on Tuesday and assumes command of the Navy Yard here in place of Admiral Porter, who relieves Admiral Hoff in command of the Cuban Squadron.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Whitley, of the secret service, last night made another important arrest of counterfeiters—two Frenchmen, Antonio Amtoel and Charles Euchie, long suspected of manufacturing five-dollar pieces and twenty-five cent postage stamps. A box containing several thousand dollars of counterfeit money was found in their possession and taken charge of the officers.

The new Mexican Minister, Marshal, and Mexican Commissioner Palsiros, arrived to-day in the steamer Cleopatra, from Havana.

It is understood that work will be commenced on the new postoffice in the Park in a few days.

Letters from England show that the man killed on the railroad there, and who, it was supposed, had something to do with the Ocean Bank robbery in this city, had no connection whatever with that affair.

The Republican Central Committee last night adopted a resolution in favor of the eight hour law.

The grand jury of Westchester county has presented the management of the State prison, and laid the blame of the late trouble on the Prison Association and the influence that Association contributes to false sympathy on the part of the community, which eventuates in the convicts being regarded as objects of sympathy and pity rather than criminals and offenders against the peace and welfare of the community. This coming to the knowledge of the prisoners, as it certainly does more or less, causes general discontent. The grand jury advocate a return to severer punishments and find no reason for censure of the officers of the prison.

John H. Pratt, the ringleader in the Jefferson, Texas, riots, was arrested here last night by a detective from the headquarters of General Reynolds.

SARATOGA, Aug. 7.—The American Dental Association closed its session to-day, after appointing commissioners for the ensuing year, and inducting the newly elected President. Mr. Judd offered a resolution in favor of admitting women to membership in subordinate associations, which was tabled, on the ground of want of jurisdiction.

ALBANY, Aug. 6.—The excitement here in regard to the Susquehana Railroad is intense. Complaint was made to-day against the Directors and Treasurer on the charge of a conspiracy to place the road under the control of Jay Gould and his friends, now managing the Erie road, and thus to defraud the company out of its property. Judge Clute, issued an injunction against the above parties acting as Directors and Treasurer, which reduces the Board to less than a quorum, and though they met they were obliged to adjourn.

The Tennessee Election.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 6.—With the exception of the disturbance at Mussow there is no account of violence in west Tennessee. The Democratic press here is announcing a victory, and urge the supporters of Senter to exhibit charity in this hour of triumph, and forget the wrongs that have been inflicted.

The Avalanche learns that some carpet-baggers are preparing to leave. It urges them to remain and assures them of safety.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 6.—Information from east Tennessee shows that Senter carries that section by a small majority, in which case the majority in the State will not be less than 50,000.

James P. and John Brownlow are both beaten for the Legislature in their districts, though both were for Senter, who carried both districts.

The State Journal, a Stokes organ will be suspended to-morrow.

More Grief for the Democracy.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—A grand banquet was given to Sing Mun and Chow Chew, the Chinese visitors, at the Sherman House last night. The party was very select; it was composed of members of the Board of Trade and several of the most prominent business men of the city, and some distinguished men from other parts of the United States. J. M. Richards, President of the Board of Trade, presided. At the conclusion, he gave an account, in a brief speech, of the visit of the Chicago commercial party to California, speaking in the highest terms of their reception there, and expressing the belief that a great trade will soon spring up, not only between California and Chicago, but with China, via San Francisco.

Chow Chew, in response to a toast—"Our Guests"—made a few highly appropriate remarks. He said that on landing on the shore of California, a stranger to the customs, laws, language, and in the minds of some an intruder, he found kindness and justice. He expressed warm admiration of Chicago, and thanks for the cordial reception extended to them here, and hoped that their visit might be productive of good results both to China and America. Speeches were also made by Hon. N. B. Judd and A. S. Gould of San Francisco, who gave a brief account of the growth of that city, and expressed the belief that the interests of San Francisco and Chicago are identical, and that a great trade would spring up between them.

The Eclipse.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Aug. 6.—Twelve astronomers are here, with eleven telescopes in position, and with meteorological apparatus. The weather has been cloudy for two days past, and no signs of clearing up. Scientific men doubt the possibility of making observations. The barometer rose slightly this morning, but stopped.

Though the eclipse will only be partial at Washington, the whole force of the National Observatory will be engaged in taking observations. Advices received from parties sent to various parts of the country indicate that all are ready for business. The chief of observation has reason to believe that Professor Hall has reached Alaska.

Alabama Election.

MONTGOMERY, Aug. 6.—The returns are still meager. Enough is known to render it certain that Buckley and Hays, Republicans, are elected in the Second and Fourth Congressional Districts. Dox Sherman, Democrat, is elected in the Fifth District. Returns from the First District are too indefinite to say certainly, but the impression is that Buckley is elected. The Third District is very close and it will take an official count to decide who is elected.

MOBILE, Aug. 6.—A serious riot occurred here last night at an out-door Republican meeting, composed principally of negroes, who held a celebration over the triumph of the Republican candidate for Congress in this District. A large number of shots were fired and three negroes were killed and five wounded. Four policemen and three other whites were wounded.

Revenue Stamp Counterfeiters.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Washington specials say that late developments in New York and elsewhere, in regard to the extent of the counterfeiting of revenue stamps, are causing much uneasiness in the Revenue Department. The detectives have arrested a lot of whom which were better ment have again been placed under arrest by order of the Courts.

Valmazeda has sent to Manzillo three hundred soldiers under Col. Quiers, from that port. Part of the expedition will be sent in search of Colonel Forreno and two hundred and fifty Spanish soldiers, who had not been heard from for some time. Fears are entertained for their safety.

The cholera has broken out among the Spanish stationed on the plantations.

Miscellaneous.

GETTYSBURG, Aug. 6.—Most of the railroads leading here extend free tickets to the Union and Confederate officers attending the reunion on the battle fields on the 26th inst. The artist who is engaged in painting the picture of the battle and Colonel Batcheider, the historian, will be present.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 6.—The report that Jay Cooke & Co. advanced money on the whisky destroyed by the recent fire, is positively denied by that firm.

WORCESTER, MASS., Aug 7.—Hon. Chas. Allen, for many years a prominent citizen of the State and formerly a member of Congress, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and the occupant of other positions of trust and honor, died here this morning, aged 72.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—A fire last night at Columbusville, Long Island, destroyed the oil cloth factory of Sampson, Alden & Sons. The loss on the buildings and contents is estimated at from $200,000 to $400,000.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—New York specials state that Christopher Gaiz, an alleged defaulter of the Prussian Government, was arrested to-day and will be returned next steamer.

Railroad men predict a further reduction in freight tariffs west, owing to the competition and limited amount offering.

The Insurance Association will investigate the Philadelphia fire, owing to the suspicion that many of the barrels insured were filled with water with intent to defraud.

BUFFALO, Aug. 7.—The anti-coal monopoly organization held another meeting last evening. Resolutions were passed recommending the abolition of the coal tariff and instructing the member of Congress from this District to use every effort to procure its repeal. A committee was appointed to draft a memorial to Congress to abolish the duty on foreign coal.

George and James Addison surrendered to the authorities to day, for shooting the two Cresswells, at Edgefield, yesterday. Charles Cresswell died, and J. D. Cresswell, who was charged with the seduction of the sister of Addison, is dangerously but not mortally wounded.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LONDON, Aug. 5.—In the House of Commons to-night, Otway, in reply to a question asked by Browning, said that in consequence of the recommendation of the official committee, the government had declined to fill the vacancy in the British Consulship at Chicago.

Stansfelt moved the second reading of the Canadian bill, which proposes to guarantee a loan of 300,000 pounds for the purchase of the Territory and rights of the Hudson Bay Company. He stated that in order to facilitate the adjustment of this question, which was of considerable importance in respect to the relations of England and America, to promote the settlement of the Territory, her Majesty's Government undertook, in accordance with the pledges it had given, to propose this guarantee to the House.

Monike opposed the motion and moved as an amendment that the second reading be postponed for three months.

Dilke seconded it. He hoped the Government would lay down some clear and distinct policy, with respect to colonial guarantees.

After further discussion the amendment postponing the second reading was rejected, 86 by 10 The bill was then read a second time.

In their practice the Harvard crew made better time and showed a better form than heretofore. They made 24 strokes per minute at the start and gradually increased the number.

At an early hour this morning, in the session of Parliament, great excitement was caused by a loud explosion in the building. Search was instituted and a tin case which had contained powder, was picked up on the terrace near by. Not much damage was done, and no arrests were made. The affair is involved in mystery.

The Harvard boat crew have received a new boat fourty four and a half feet long.

LONDON, Aug 6.—The following is the press on the seizure by the American Government of the gunboats building for Spain, at different points in the United States:

The Morning Star says the American Government, having exhibited vigor in favor of Spain by enforcing the neutrality laws, has now proceeded equally vigorously against Spain. For the same cause, the writer regards the recognition of Cuba by Peru ill advised, through a spirit of spite. All indications are that the Cuban insurgents seem able to hold their own. The whisperings of the cession of Cuba to the United States are now louder than ever The Americans have desired to gain possession of that island for the past twenty years; now the obstacle of slavery having been solved, if a fair purchase can be effected, all parties may be satisfied with the arrangement, which will give another State to the Union and remove a great perplexity from the arena of Spanish politics.

The News concludes its article as follows: Considering all the circumstances which make it difficult for Europeans to keep hold of their unwilling colonies in America, and reflecting that Cuba is now in insurrection, Spain will be fortunate if twenty millions of dollars ever reach Madrid as the price for Cuba.

ROME, Aug. 5.—A correspondent writes: It is now probable that the Pope will renounce the idea of a Council. The emancipation of civil societies from church influences is so complete that it would be superfluous to proceede with the meeting. It is expected other States will show the same moderation as Baron Von Beust in his reply to Hohenlohe.

BRIGHTON, Aug. 6.—At the race to-day, the club stakes were won by Armigion, and the Queen's plate by Kennington.

COWES, Aug. 5.—To-day the third of the Royal Yacht Squadron regatta races came off for the town cup valued at £100. It was sailed over the Queen's course for fifty miles. The weather was fine and thirteen yachts started. The race was won by the cutter Arrow: schooner Alice second, and cutter Oimara third.

MADRID, Aug. 6.—Nearly all the Carlist bands are dissolved, and have disappeared. They are discouraged, and the movement considered quite dead.

PARIS, Aug. 7.—The Emperor and Empress go to Chalons to-morrow, where they will remain until the 21st inst. The Empress will consume about three months in the trip through Turkey and Egypt.

Marshal Neil is quite ill.

Yesterday a duel was fought between Paul Cassagnia and Gustave Flowrens. The latter received four wounds, one of them severe.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.

By steamer Pacific, from Portland, this morning $42,000 in treasure was received.

The Pacific Mail steamer Sacramento will sail for Panama on Monday, to connect at Aspinwall with the steamer Alaska, for New York.

The next steamer for Portland will be the Moses Taylor, to sail on the 14th.

The solar eclipse commenced in San Francisco at precisely the moment predicted by the astronomers. Thousands thronged the streets with Stockton Dispatch.

STOCKTON, Aug. 8.—The Western Pacific Railroad track was laid within three quarters of a mile of the city to-day, and would have been to town but for their having run short of material.

Mrs. Mary McKay was found in a starving condition in a tenement house on Lafayette street last night. She was taken in hand by the Ladies' Benevolent Society, who rendered her all the assistance in their power, but too late to save the unfortunate woman, who died to-day.

The eclipse of the sun commenced at 1:33 P. M. to-day. Ninety-five degrees was the lowest the thermometer denoted during the eclipse.

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA, Aug. 7.—A committee of citizens of Virginia, Gold Hill and Carson, meet Vice President Colfax and escort him to this city.

The funeral of Springer, killed by Dedman, takes place to-morrow.

An attempt was made last night to rob the Carson and Reno stage. The robbers caught the leaders and the driver fired at them. The team broke away and went on.

Work is resumed at the 1,000 foot level of the Crown Point mine. Weekly reports from other mines are flattering.

CARSON, Aug. 7.—The eclipse of the sun to-day presented a magnificent appearance. A settled gloom overspread all the earth like summer's twilight. Chickens went to roost, the lowing herd came home for the night and the watch dog sought his kennel; the Indians retired to their mountain fastnesses and gazed with speechless wonder and awe at the great and shifting scene.

The young man Cain, who committed suicide here yesterday, was buried to-day. A large concourse followed him to his last resting place.

ALASKA.

On Sunday evening August 1st, the U. S. Quartermaster's steamer Newbern arrived at Victoria from Sitka, which place she left on the 24th July, calling at Wrangel and Tongass on the way down. From the officers of the steamer the Victoria Colonist obtains the following:

A Tongass a curious circumstance occurred. The Newbern reached there on Tuesday, and found that the people had observed the day before (Monday) as Sunday. Owing to the great length of the summer days in that latitude, (there is virtually no night from May till August) the garrison had actually lost their reckoning and dropped one day from the calendar! The Fidelitor has arrived at Sitka with General Thomas and staff. The General was about to proceed to Kodiac and the islands of St. Paul and St. George. Upon his return to Sitka a thorough investigation into the affairs of the military management will be commenced. While at Kodiac the General will view the eclipse. The U. S. S. Mohican has gone to the Asiatic coast to take observations of the great solar eclipse.

The Newbern sailed from Victoria for San Francisco on the 2d inst., and will return to Sitka about the middle of September. She brings files of the Alaska Times of the 16th inst., which we have received from Victoria by mail. We extract as follows:

We most emphatically direct the attention of the proper authorities to the great necessity existing of placing a few military stations along the coast, viz: at the mouth of the Taseoo river and Chilcat villages. A few expeditions have left here at different times to trade and explore the country in the places above mentioned, but the Indians are numerous and bold and evince no disposition to facilitate matters for the whites. It is very well known that the fur trade of that locality is the richest throughout this Territory, and we consider it to be to the interest of the country to develop its wealth. Reports are current that gold has been found along the Taseoo, but the Indians would not allow the parties who left here to ascend the river. Traders and others call loudly against this. They say that a dozen or so of soldiers located at the mouth of the Taseoo, would make that great river navigable and throw it open to traders from all parts. The subject deserves consideration at the hands of the National Government. The Hudson Bay Company appear to manage things far better than we do and inspire more confidence from their general treatment of the Indians. The country is losing by its own neglect, every trader requires encouragement and protection; it is their right, and we believe it only requires the attention of the Government to be directed to the matter in order to insure it relief.

General Davis showed us a few days ago a specimen of coal which some of the Kakes brought here, and it seems to be of a very fine quality. Although the coal was simply the outcroppings of the bed, it burned well. The Indians report it to be found in large quantities throughout the Islands and they promised to bring up a few sacks of it in a few weeks, for the General. This coal is found near the Prince of Wales' Island.

I. Brevet Brigadier-General C. H. Tompkins, Lieut.-Colonel and Deputy Quartermaster-General, having reported to these headquarters in compliance with paragraph 9 of Special Orders No. 49, current series, from Headquarters of the Army, is announced as Chief Quartermaster of the Department, relieving Brevet Lieut.-Colonel G. H. Weeks, Captain and Assistant Quartermaster from that duty.

Col. Weeks, upon being relieved, will proceed by the first opportunity, to San Francisco, Cal., and report to the Headquarters Military Division of the Pacific for assignment, in compliance with General Orders No. 17, current series, from those Headquarters.

II. Brevet Brigadier-General George P. Ihrie, Paymaster U. S. A., having reported to these Headquarters in compliance with General Orders No. 57, current series, from Headquarters of the Army, is announced as Chief Paymaster of the Department.

Several reports are in circulation through the San Francisco press that 50,000 seal skins had arrived in that port recently, from this Territory, two thirds of the number females and pups. Such statements are rather dubious, and should be received with caution. The Government have agents at the different islands to look after the interests of the fur and seal sk

At the Church Gate

Although I enter not,
Yet round about the spot
Ofttimes I hover;
And near the sacred gate,
With longing eyes I wait,
Expectant of her.

The minster bell tolls out
And noise and humming;
They've hushed the minster bell
The organ 'gins to swell,
She's coming, coming'

My lady comes at last,
Timid and stepping fast,
And hastening hither,
With modest eyes downcast,
She comes—she's here, she's past!
May heaven go with her!

Kneel undisturbed, fair saint!
Pour out your praise or plaint
Meekly and duly;
I will not enter there,
To sully your pure prayer
With thoughts unruly.

But suffer me to pace
Round the forbidden place,
Lingering a minute,
Like outcast spirits, who wait,
And see, through Heaven's gate,
Angels within it.—Thackeray

A Woman's Farm.

THE FARM AND FARMING OF SEVEN SISTERS.

[From the Minnesota Monthly.]

This is the model farm of the Big Woods, six miles from the prairie, sixty miles from St. Paul. The railroad now being graded will run through it. Ere long, it will be pointed out to thousands of emigrants and travelers as an object of great interest, and will show to all what gentle, modest and womanly women can accomplish when impelled by filial affection, and a sense of duty.

Their dwelling house, a commodious log building which the neighbors helped them to build, and all its surroundings, betoken the industry, thrift, neatness and taste of the occupants. The outhouses for horses, cattle, pigs, poultry and smokehouse, and the fields and fences, all indicate that the occupants of this home stead excel in husbandry, and know how to live.

Two years ago last April, they secured here two homesteads of eighty acres each, under the homestead law, and have since cleared forty acres, all of which is now in crop. Of their crop of last year, besides what was consumed in the family, they sold 900 bushels of potatoes, 500 bushels of corn, 200 bushels of wheat, 250 bushels of turnips, 200 bushels beets, 1,100 heads cabbage, and over $200 worth of garden stuff. The potatoes they sold for 50 cents per bushel. We forgot to ask what they received for the other products.

All the work on this farm, the clearing and grubbing the land, the fencing, sowing, planting, cultivating and harvesting, and taking care of the stock, and all other work, excepting the spliting the rails and breaking and plowing the second land, was performed by these women sisters.

These ladies are natives of Ohio, whence they emigrated to this State three years ago, and to this farm, then wild land, in April, 1867. The family of the seven sisters, the youngest aged fifteen years, the eldest about twenty-five, their mother, and their father, an invalid.

The family removed to this State with the hope of improving his health, and this spring, for the first time in many years, he is able to work in farm work. In the course of conversation on the management of this model farm, the mother, a fine looking old lady, remarked:

"The girls are not proud of the hard work they have had to do to get the farm started, but they are not ashamed of it. We were too poor to live together and live in a town. We expect to make a living there, but here we have a comfortable and independent home. We tried to give the girls a good education. They all read and write, and find a little time to read books and papers."

At a meeting of the North Pacific Transportation Company, held in San Francisco on the 29th July, the following gentlemen were elected Trustees for the ensuing year: Ben. Holladay, Wm. Norris, Lloyd Tevis, A. Hayward, S. P. Bell, W. C. Ralston, and W. F. Babcock. The Board was organized this afternoon as follows: Ben. Holladay, President; Vice President, Wm. Norris; Secretary, C. ENDORSEMENTS.

OLYMPIA, W. T., March 27, 1869.

C. A. WHITE, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having examined your original map, embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value. Having been engaged for a number of years in the surveys from Cape Flattery to the head of Puget Sound, I have examined this portion of your map more critically than others, and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory, but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "Far West," and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution.

Asst. U. S. C. S.

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas. S Lawson, esq., and will add that Mr. Chas. A. White is a practical Surveyor, and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this Territory, as also the coast Survey charts; and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of mountains, as being correct, and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.

THE LEWIS RIVER MINES.—Mr. Bell, the commercial editor of the Herald, after a trip to Vancouver, gives the following statement: "While at Vancouver on Friday last, we learned from Messrs. M. Wentler, C. R. Stegert and others, reliable business men of that place, the following regarding the mines recently discovered in that neighborhood, our informants themselves having been at the mines and assisted in forming a Mining District. The mines are situated on Canyon Creek and Texas Creek, near the headwaters of Lewis, Washougal and other [illegible], those on the latter creek being known as the "Lone Star Texas Camp." The most direct route is via Vancouver, the distance from that place to Canyon creek being between 35 and 40 miles, and Texas Creek being about 12 or 15 miles further. The trail is not yet very good, but the distance can be accomplished in a day and a half. There is no feed for animals, and those taking them have to make arrangements to have them brought back; this, however, to obviate the necessity of taking them at all, a party in Vancouver have established a pack train, and are ready at any time to take out a party. There are no provisions to be had out there, so that any one going out must needs take his grub along or go without. [illegible] gold has been discovered is beyond all question, for we have a specimen of it now in our [illegible]; but whether the same is in paying quantities or not, is yet to be fully tested, and before the fact is [illegible] it will have to be well prospected; and there is now engaged in this work a man of the name of Texas, an old [illegible] Canadian, one who has had great experience in California, Fraser River, Cariboo and other mines, and it is his intention to remain there throughout this season and thoroughly prospect the place, and would like the assistance of old experienced miners in his work; but we are authorized to state that he does not wish his name used for the purpose of causing any excitement or [illegible], and that the various articles appearing in the Vancouver Register, so far as he is concerned, are without his authority. From what has now been discovered, the gold appears to be in all the small canyons, and even on the [illegible] the color is found—but there is a great lack of water, the springs being nearly dry, owing to the lack of rain. When water becomes plentiful, and all the appliances for mining are got on the ground, we have no doubt that [illegible] will turn up, those with whom we have conversed having confidence in the [illegible]. We have shown our specimens of the gold to Mr. Paul Smith, who pronounces it to be worth from $16 75 to $17 00."

CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—Proceedings of [illegible] Aug. 7th:

[illegible] vs. J. Q. Gilbreth, L. Nicolai and Adolph [illegible]; contract for cutting and removing timber from [illegible]. Defendant Adolph Nicolai appeared in person, and by W. W. Chapman his attorney, was arraigned and has until Monday next to plead. Case set for trial on Monday the 27th inst.

[illegible] vs. W. K. Smith; indictment for perjury in filing Income Return for 1868. Defendant appeared and by W. Strong his attorney, was arraigned and plead not guilty. Cause set for trial on Monday the 23d inst.; defendant admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000.

Ordered that venire issue to the Marshal requiring him to summon 24 persons to serve as trial jurors, and to appear on Monday the 23d inst.

Court then adjourned until Monday, 9th.

RACE.—The third regatta race took place Saturday [illegible]. The boats entered were the Elsie, by Stevens; Turtle, by Talbott; Nettie, by Stevenson; Monnie, by [illegible]; Fleetwing, by Upton and Bowman.

The start: the Elsie started at 4:25 P. M.; Turtle 4:25 13½; Nettie 4:25 28½; Monnie 4:26 28½; Fleetwing 4:26 41½.

The first southern stake-boat—Monnie 5:21 50; Nettie 5:23 20; Elsie 5:27; Turtle 5:32; Fleetwing 5:33 10.

Arrived home—Monnie 6:1 30; Nettie 6:9 50; Fleetwing 6:14 55; Elsie 6:14 55; Turtle 6:19 20.

The prizes were two marine glasses. First prize awarded to Monnie; the 2d to Nettie.

CORK BACK TO STAY.—The Unionist of Saturday says: "Mr. Philip Earl, of Polk county, returned home on the last steamer, having been absent over a year at his home in the East. He comes back better pleased than ever with Oregon. He says the climate of Oregon is far [illegible] to Canada in point of health, and is much pleasanter to live in. Some heavy Canadian capitalists talk some of emigrating to Oregon, and were the resources of the State better known, many would come here to make Oregon their homes. Mr. J. Converse and wife, formerly of Salem, also came with him.

IMPORTANT ASTRONOMICAL DISCOVERY.—The Herald of yesterday discussed wisely of the weather. Putting "readings aside," it announced the following important discovery: "One fact was evident to everybody yesterday, and that is that the moon, whatever its size, appearance and component parts, and distance from the earth may be, possesses the form of a spheriod." As this fact have been noted elsewhere, we hope that the result of looking "through a glass darkly" at Portland, will be immediately forwarded to the Government astronomers.

EDUCATIONAL.—The following are the officers of the Marion County Teachers' Association, for the ensuing year: President, L. J. Powell; Vice President, Miss M. A. Robinson; Secretary, William Simpson; Treasurer, Miss L. E. Hay; Librarian, J. E. Gill; Editor, W. T. [illegible]; Editresses, Miss L. A. Simpson; Board of Examiners, L. J. Powell, J. S. Donnison, Mrs R. L. Price, Miss Aurora Watt and O. D. Doane; Executive Committee, E. P. Smith, O. L. Wolford and J. P. Smith.

The Great Eastern and Royal Euro[illegible] Circus will perform at the corner of Morrison and Fifth [illegible] to-morrow evening, for the benefit of the Lee [illegible] and on Wednesday night for the benefit of Mrs. A. D. Miller and family. We understand that Mr. Lee has added some attractions to his troupe, since he was here. There are several volunteers for the performance to-morrow evening.

NEW WHEAT.—It is said that over 15,000 bushels of new wheat was brought into Albany last week, and stored to await shipment. It is a little unfortunate that the wheat of the interior cannot come forward, as there is now a temporary demand at a fair price. The quotations are not likely to remain up for any great length of time.

ANNIVERSARY BALL.—The Washington Guard will celebrate its sixth anniversary by a Grand Military and Civic Ball at the Company's Armory on the 25th inst. Committee of Arrangements: Messrs. Stevens, Lotan, Fuller, Bones and Bushwiller. Music by the Mechanic's Brass band.

CHANGES OF TIME.—Mr. Jamison informs us that, hereafter, the Dayton mail stage will leave the American Exchange on Tuesday and Saturday mornings at six o'clock. Returning will leave McMinnville on Friday and Monday at 5 A. M.

ARRESTED.—Several of the Hess family, including one woman, have been arrested for the murder of Claiborne Morris, and their examination at Lafayette took place on Saturday. It was not closed when Jamison's express left.

INSANE.—A young woman named Jennie McCullough was brought down from Salem on Saturday and placed in the Asylum. She had long been [illegible] in mind and is now [illegible] by insane

LOW WATER.—The water of the Willamet is said to be now as low as at any time last year. Boats have ceased to run to Albany, and it is only by dint of hard work that they should reach Salem.

MAJOR ADAMS AT OREGON CITY.—A friend at Oregon City writes us that Major Adams lecture at that place Saturday evening was a success—everybody delighted.

THE WEST.

The election in California for members of the Legislature and county officers will take place on the first day of September.

An exchange says "Iowa is [illegible] with grass hoppers." We are glad to hear that they can be made so useful. As Idaho has an abundance of them, here is a suggestion for that Territory.

The San Francisco Call contains an article on the building interest of San Francisco at the present time. It says, in substance, there is on every hand depression, and that very few new buildings are going up.

On the 31st July there were twenty four vessels in the harbor of San Francisco under engagement to load with wheat. Their carrying capacity is 27,000 tons or upwards of 800,000 bushels. At these rates the crop will "move" pretty fast.

The Seattle paper says: Fires have been raging in the woods, north and south of this place, the past week. Great damage has been done to growing timber. The atmosphere, in the early part of the week, was so dense with smoke that it was with difficulty the steamers reached the wharf. The whistle of Yesler's mill rendered efficient service in directing their movements.

The San Francisco Bulletin of the 31st July says: News was to day received of the British ship Grassendale, from Sunderland (March 20) for San Francisco; crew saved; no other particulars. The Grassendale was an iron ship of 1,271 tons register, and was launched last January. The cargo of the above vessel consists of 30,000 fire brick, 1,200 tons of coal and 300 tons of pig iron. She had been daily expected at this port for the past week.

An order has been received at Victoria from the British Admiralty, rescinding the regulation requiring naval officers and seamen to shave their beards and moustaches. By the new regulation, officers and men may wear the full beard and moustaches, or they may wear the whiskers without the moustaches, as now, but they may not wear moustaches only. If they shave at all, it must be after the style they have been accustomed to follow from time immemorial.

Horrible Murder.

From the La Grande Sentinel we learn the particulars of a horrible murder which occurred in Tennor's Gulch, Grand Ronde mines, on Saturday, July 25th. The story as told by Mr. Banks, who brought the body to La Grande, is as follows:

On Sunday last, the parties concerned, Thos. McKnight and Doc. Ware, together with others, were seated at the dinner table, at Pomeroy's boarding house, in Tennor's Gulch. Mr. Pomeroy's daughters 10 and 12 years of age, it seems, had gone visiting, and McKnight had promised to call for them in the evening and bring them home—they not being much acquainted with the road. While at dinner McKnight asked Ware if he would go with him when evening came for the girls. Ware answered him by saying "The girls went alone and they can come alone," and added that McKnight "had frequently insulted the girls." This was denied, and Ware reiterated the charge. McKnight said that "such is not the case. It has always been my intention to treat them as ladies, and I know I have always done so." A few other words followed, and Ware picked up a saltcellar and drew back his arm as if he was going to strike McKnight, when the latter told him if he "threw that he would kill him." Both of the men got up from the table shortly afterward, and a slight pause followed without demonstrations being made by either one, excepting that Ware kept his arm behind him and drew closer to McKnight. He had his head down and seemed to be studying, when all of a sudden he looked up and said, "Kill me now! kill me now," and with that he drew his knife and plunged it into McKnight's stomach, letting the food that he had just eaten run out upon the floor. Then he stabbed him in the left side, a piece of McKnight's liver dropping out, and followed up by cutting him in the back, in the left arm and in the right shoulder. This was done so quickly that but few could realize that McKnight was hurt, and it was not until he fell and Ware remarked that he 'had killed him,' that any one fully understood what had occurred. Mr. Banks left immediately for medical assistance, and while going down the flat he passed Ware, whom he told McKnight was dying. Ware seemed quite affected, and said he thought he would be hung for the crime committed, but at any rate he would give himself up to the proper authorities. He said he didn't want any one to follow him, as he had a derringer in his pocket and it would be unpleasant for any one to attempt to arrest him. A few minutes after he was upon a horse making for the mountains.

The wounded man lingered in great agony until about 5 o'clock Monday morning, and then just as the sun arose he died. He was a hard working industrious man, and was never known to have been under the influence of liquor. A native of Ireland; he was born in a place called Croon, in the county of Limerick. He was brought down from the mines and buried in the city graveyard on Tuesday last.

Little is known of Ware, more than he used to live in La Grande, drove a team for John Creighton, and was engaged in the butchering business in the mines. He is about 25 years of age, of fair complexion and medium height. No efforts have as yet been made to arrest him.

THE COMING STORY WRITER.—The people of Oregon have a novelist in their midst—a story writer in disguise—last week he or she poured a stream of pure cold water fiction through the columns of the Corvallis Gazette. Like most stories, this is about love, but a new kind of love, as this extract from a tender epistle of the carpenter to his Clara, indicates:

"I have never loved any female—except my relations; and when my heart seemed drawn to you in such deep and swagging love, I regretted that I had ever seen you."

Clara comes back at her carpentier and calls his hand thus:

DEAR JAMES: Let me throw off all female affectation, and show a heart forever yours in bonds of deepest swagging love and constancy, * * *

CLARA STEWART.

Our critic congratulates Jim and Clara on the swag of their love and the richness and fullness thereof, and recommends them to matrimony and Kane's Imperial soap.—Albany Democrat.

HORSE AND BUGGY FOR SALE.—A bargain can be had of E. P. Hicks, corner Third and Columbia streets if applied for immediately. Also a good second hand, top Brewster buggy, and a good time, sound, black horse, seven years old—all O. K.

LOOK OUT! ICE WILL BE VERY CHEAP NEXT SUMMER.—ANOTHER ICE HOUSE.—We learn that Mr. Leonard Stark will build a very large ice house this winter, also, that he is going to have all the proper machinery for cutting and packing ice brought from the East by a friend who is going in partnership with him. The same gentleman intends to start Soda works on a big scale in this city next Spring. Hurrah for Stark & Co.

NOTICE.

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN CALLING the attention of dealers to a valuable Patented Improvement in Electro-Plating spoons and forks by which those parts most exposed to wear receive an EXTRA COAT OF SILVER!

THREE TIMES THE USUAL THICKNESS

viz: on the back of the handle, heel of the bowl and points of bowls of spoons—back of the handle and breast and points of tines of forks, as illustrated in cut.

This mode of Electro Plating greatly supercedes the old way of plating. The great advantage will be readily seen, as spoons and forks always wear through on these exposed points, while the plate is yet good on other parts of the article. This new process will add THREE TIMES TO THE DURABILITY of goods so plated.

Knives, forks and spoons stamped "1847 ROGERS BROTHERS ALL," are Electro Plated by the new Patented Process.

We have now been before the public since 1852, manufacturing ELECTRO-PLATED GOODS, which have stood the most severe tests of wear in hotels, steamers and private families and have given universal satisfaction, supplying, as it does, all of the advantages of silver in durability and beauty. We wish to call particular attention to the hardness and firmness of our White Metal, which exceeds anything of the kind made in this country. All goods plated on this metal bear our trade mark, and the plating is warranted THREE TIMES THE USUAL THICKNESS.

The Hon. Jno. E. Sandford, Insurance Commissioner of Massachusetts, in his Report for 1868, speaking of Dividends in Life Insurance Companies, says: "The sooner such guarantees come to be made, and such expectations created, the sooner Life Insurance will come to rest on its true motive, and men insure their lives for security, and not for dividends. The best and most popular companies will then be those that promise only equity, and render all that they promise, and furnish the best security, with the most upright and judicious management."

"By the Stock plan, the full cash effect of the Premium is immediately secured to the Insured, the Company taking ALL the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in Insurance of the Premium paid, is not secured to the Policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself."

Pollard on the Virginia Election.

E. A. Pollard, the historian of the "Lost Cause," has written a letter on the Virginia election in which he says that the respectability of the Walker party and its acceptance of the requirements of the great party which rules the country "is a fatal blow to the aspirations that, since the war, have been held in the South of preserving something of political, social and public sentiment distinctively Southern. It means the disintegration of anything like peculiar Southern civilization, and the abandonment at least by intelligence and respectability of the South of the hope of rescuing anything considerable from the ruins of its old institutions, and of opposition to the course of reconstruction. The Virginia election is the first instance in which the best men of the South came forward at last to participate in reconstruction. It means the acceptance of the situation in a sense much broader than acquiescence in the demands of any mere political party. Counting all its moral effects on the South, it is an event in her history which dates a new departure in the whole moral, social and political organization of the South."

In this letter Pollard undoubtedly makes correct statements and reaches correct conclusions. In a very short time nothing will remain of the old distinctive features of Southern society and Southern politics. The idea of preserving anything distinctively Southern, and bearing any resemblance to the former habits and institutions of the South, is utterly impracticable. The revolution will be complete. Pollard is right in supposing that the election in Virginia has given this movement a great impetus. The South is marching forward in accordance with its destiny, and the Northern Democracy are the only class who resist the inevitable and who are infatuated enough to believe that the great revolution can be turned backwards. Yet this result in Virginia has been claimed by some of the Bourbon press as a Democratic victory! The Richmond Enquirer, since the year 1804, the leader and dictator of the Virginia Democracy, says, "The Democratic papers of the North have committed a very grave error in ascribing this great victory to the Virginia Democracy." There has been no such party in this State for eight years, and its very bones have rotted, and now crumble at the touch. No resurrectionary process could bring that party to life, and its ashes is mingled with, and undistinguished from, those of the old Whig party." Let us have more "Democratic Victories!"

The Next Apportionment.

Some of the New England journals are indulging in gloomy forebodings as to the effect that the census of 1870 will have upon the representation of the several States in Congress. It is believed that the unparalleled growth of the Western States in population will reduce the number of Congressmen of the old States, and therefore a system of representation compounded of two elements, population and wealth, has been openly advocated. The Providence Press, in commenting upon this subject, says: "The West is superior in numerical strength to the East is far surpassing in the rapidity of its progress. This fact will make a change in the consideration of the just basis of apportionment, and the section which contributes of its capital to promote the material growth of the country may not be compelled to be satisfied with a small minority in the House of representative, while the West, dependent, at least in the early part of its history, upon the favor and patronage of the East, may not have a controlling voice in Congress; and so distribute the capital which they do not own as to enhance itself at the expense of the rest of the country." As the Constitution provides that Representatives and Direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers of persons, no change can be made without an amendment to that instrument. And such an amendment is by no means likely to be brought about. The Boston Advertiser looks at this matter in a more practical way when it remarks: "The relative strength of the East is not to be reduced by any such expedient. After contributing to build up a great country in the interior, and to furnish it with marvellous facilities for the development of its resources, there is nothing left for the 'original thirteen' to do but to gracefully submit to whatever is dominated in the bond. They are abundantly able to protect themselves and their interests by the character of their representation in the government, and by the influence of their immediate representatives and their capital at the West."

Jealous Position of a California Senator.

There has been a joust in California between Senator Casserly and the gentleman from China, which has attracted attention from all parts of the country. The Celtic Senator has gone down before the lance of the conquering Mongolian, and to escape from the scene of his humiliation he has taken the cars and started East as fast as steam can carry him. Even the Democratic papers jeer at him. The San Francisco Herald says he has made complete failure in his attempt to deal with the Chinese question, and has run away to get rid of the consequences. Says that paper, "He is bewildered and lost in the sinuosities of his own wriggling, and cannot get out:" He is not the only Democratic champion whom the Chinaman will discomfit if the tournament goes on. The Herald further says: "He was fain on his arrival to eulogise the Chinese; he learned he had made a most monstrous mistake, and endeavored to take it back He finds, that in trying to take it back he has said it again" The Herald is so incensed at him that it continues its attack in this way:

But our Senator said one thing on that occasion that is worthy of more than ordinary notice. "I have not often in my life," he said, "noticed newspaper misstatements." Many a depreciatory remark have we heard of our Senator. His enemies, irreverent wretches, call him little, treacherous and trifling—mean, mendacious and double-faced. They brait many scandalous things touching the appliances by which he attained his present position; but they could not have wished him to say a more stupid or damaging thing than the piece of stereotype and hackneied impertinence and silliness we have quoted. For they will naturally ask, Who is this man who talks in such a lofty and lordly manner of newspapers? The answer will be that he was himself in the days when he was comparatively honest and respectable connected in a small and feeble way with the press. But in the short public career in which those things which may be charitably dismissed as his political eccentricities, claimed temporary public recognition, no man who had committed one tenth of his treason to party or principle ever obtained one-half the indulgence extended to him. It is true, however, this indulgence was not the result of charity or magnanimity, so much as indifference and contempt. The press seem to exercise a acerbities on that small head. His offenses, lacking personal character, never could acquire the dignity that would entitle them to anything higher than contemptuous indifference.

In General.

Vice President Colfax has made his appearance upon the Pacific slope almost unannounced. He is now in Nevada How far his tour will extend we are unable to say

The chap who "does up" the telegraphic dispatches at Carlin, Nevada, is a genius, and the eclipse has given him an opportunity, for the exercise of his rare powers. His description of the eclipse, as witnessed at that place is rather ahead of anything reported yet. It was a great oversight that all the Government astronomers were not sent to Carlin'

Democratic victories are thus summed up by the Chicago Times, a Democratic newspaper "Here is the Democratic party in the States of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas, nominating Republican candidates on Republican platforms, and conceding that, so far as political rights and privileges are concerned, the 'negro is a man and a brother,' and giving all evidences of 'change of heart' and thorough 'reconstruction' hitherto demanded by the most extreme Radicals, as proof of 'loyalty.'"

The Massachusetts prohibitory law is working badly. Two daily papers of Boston that advocate it now confess its failure. The Congregationalist winds up an article upon it as follows: "If the law as it now stands is not really the work of temperence men who desire to have the sale of intoxicating drinks in the Commonwealth prevented by law, but of traitors in that camp who enact it because they wanted to make sure of 'free rum' in the future, we can understand it, and in a sense admire the cunning of it. On any other theory we confess ourselves unable to fathom its mighty depths." The same paper expects a manifestation at the polls next fall surpassing the P. L. L. movement two years ago.

Horace Greeley is having a bout with strong-minded females, on the woman suffrage question. Mrs. Stanton, at a woman's rights meeting; held recently, charged Mr. Greeley with having written disgracefully abusive articles against "the cause," and having wrongfully quoted Shakespeare as authority for his position. Shakespeare she said, had highly elevated woman. He had created Portia, as a lawyer of great ability, and in Lady Macbeth, had presented a type of grander wickedness than in any of his male creations. Macbeth was a weak coward contrasted with her. To this Mr. Greeley replied that Mrs. Stanton forgot to say that that Shakespeare who always seems to create a wicked woman with reluctance, makes Lady Macbeth, while she is imagining the murder of Duncan, call upon "the spirits that tend on mortal thoughts" to "unsex her." Horace remains in possession of the field.

OREGON.

Alvin Brock was thrown from a horse near Peoria, Linn county, on the 5th inst. His spinal column was broken. He was still alive at last account.

R. Cheadle, who has been doing business at Albany for many years, has announced his intention of going to San Francisco to engage in business there.

A letter from McMinnville states that only about four miles of the big ditch will be completed the present year, leaving fourteen miles to complete before it will be available for any purpose.

Says the Unionist: Alex. McCorkle, from Howell Prairie, brags that he is a Webfoot boy, bred in Oregon, and that this dry year, he has raised 1,000 bushels of wheat from twenty-five acres of land. Good for Howell Prairie, and good for this Webfoot boy.

From the Catalogue of Santiam Academy, located at Lebanon, we learn that that institution of learning is in a flourishing condition. The teachers are, Rev. W. D. Nichols, Principal; Mrs. S. C. Nichols, Preceptress, and Miss Clara D. McDonald, Assistant.

A writer in the Corvallis Gazette contends for a railroad from Wallamet valley to Astoria instead of to Puget Sound. The Columbia river, he says, is sufficient for our commerce, and it is only half the distance from this valley to Astoria that it is from Portland to the Sound.

The Albany paper says: On Thursday Mr. S. S. Markham dispatched Henry Merrill's wood boat for Salem, laden with 500 bushels of oats She will carry any freight in returning that may be ordered for Albany, at the P. T. Co's prices. If she can "make the riffle" this trip Capt. Markham will keep her in the trade until the river rises and other boats can run.

The Albany Democrat has the following: A gentleman in this vicinity received two buggies last week from the East, for which he was taxed for freight the sum of $228 coin. This was the result of not knowing that there was a line of vessels running between Portland and New York. A newspaper costing $3 per annum would have saved him $150 in this single item.

The Albany Democrat of Friday says: The Echo reached Albany yesterday with sixteen tons of freight. Capt. Miller is of the opinion that this is the last boat of the season. He said he found the Albany horse boat, which left here yesterday with 23 tons for Salem, fast on the bottom about ten miles below here. Captain Miller pulled her off and left her to go on her way rejoicing.

From the Albany Register: Wheat has been coming in rather slowly during the week. Our report is up to Thursday night, and is as follows: J. H. Foster & Co., about 6,000 bushels; Beach & Monteith, 4,041 bushels and 58 pounds; R. Cheadle, 250 bushels; S. S. Markham & Son, 1,190 bushels; A. Cowan & Co., 3,500 bushels—making a grand total of 14,981 bushels and 58 pounds.

From the Unionist: The managers of the State Agricultural Society have decided not to contract for an artesian well on the Fair Grounds this season. Only one bid was made for the job, the bidder proposing to sink a well 300 feet deep, unless water could be procured fit at a less distance, for $2,500. This amount the managers think they cannot afford this year, but it is the intention to have a well sunk another year if the money proceeds of the State Fair this fall prove sufficient. The Society will probably purchase the necessary tools, and have the work done to the best possible advantage.

The Unionist reports that the great eclipse was a magnificent success at Salem. We extract the following from its description: "Dinner was generally eaten in silence, and as soon as the midday repast was disposed of, the people of Salem could have been seen on foot, and on the housetops, holding with the right hand carefully smoked glasses, while the left hand was clapped vigorously over the left eye. One old lady hunted up the story of Joshua making the sun stand still, and read it carefully, and we hear that a delegation of Democrats from Polk county, hearing there was to be an eclipse in Salem, came over to see the show, if the price of admission was only reasonable. B. B. is said to have been soured, for the moment, out of all remembrance of the Fifteenth Amendment, and to have cast a look of humane kindness upon a Chinaman.

Mart. Brown, of the Albany Democrat, has been over to the coast at Salmon River. In giving an account of his trip he has a parenthetical description of the Pacific ocean, which runs in this wise: This ocean is supposed to be the largest body of salt or fresh water on the Pacific coast, and consequently is named after said coast. It is thought to have its source near Portland-on-Wallamet and its terminus in Puget Sound, and is owned by B. Holladay & Co. Geo. F. Train discovered it in 1869, but didn't take it with him to his palace at Newport by the sounding sea. It is still over there on the coast, salted down, since which salting operation it is called the "briny deep." Persons who get in it over their heads are regarded as "in a pickle." As Byron and several other individuals have previously published descriptions of it in full, we will say nothing further at this time than to remark that it is "a big thing."

WASHINGTON, Aug 7.—The report that Secretary Boutwell contemplated an early trip to San Francisco is probably premature, as the Treasury authorities here have no information whatever of such an intention on the part of Secretary Boutwell.

Despatches from different points of the country where the eclipse was total, announce that the results of the observations taken by the various scientific parties, are highly satisfactory. The addition to science and human knowledge is incalculably great. Perfect photographs of the different stages of the obscurance were taken in great numbers. The scene where the eclipse was total is represented as sublime and awe inspiring beyond description.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

The Freeman's Journal, an Irish Catholic paper, regards General Rosecrans as a man of sense, and thinks he will show it by declining the nomination for Governor of Ohio

A Cincinnati man who recently visited Maine, wrote home that it was no credit to the people that they were temperate as a class, since their water was so good and their whisky so poor.

The Democratic candidate for Lieut. Governor of Vermont is a blacksmith at Burlington, and a seizure of $200 worth of his stock of manufactured ware was made the other day, on the charge that the rivets used in making it were smuggled from Canada.

Contrary to the previous statement that Elisha C. Sprague has acquiesced in the judgment of the court at Wheaton, which required him to pay $40,000 to Miss Amanda J. Craig, of Cincinnati, for breach of promise, that gentleman has appealed to the Supreme Court of Illinois for a writ of error.

If rumors are to be believed, Uncle Sam will soon have a new State, or part of a State, called San Domingo. It is announced that the Government of that Island have recently had special representatives in Washington to secure the aid of the Administration to that end. Many clear-headed politicians believe the United States ought to have possession of one of the large West Indian islands as a naval station, and to enable us to command the Gulf of Mexico.

The Tribune's Montreal correspondent speaks of the strong desire for annexation which prevails there He says that Canadians say: "We have no national pride, we are not a nation; we are not a people, we are simply French Canadians, Irish Canadians, English Canadians, Scotch Canadians, belonging to no race, and having no nadie—a people of a mongrel birthright. We have nothing to defend, nothing to be proud of except our personal possessions The land we live in does not belong to us, we cannot dispose of ourselves or our goods, or administer laws, or perform a single public act without the sanction of a man sent to us 3,000 miles from a land not half of us know anything about, to rule over us."

It appears that Mrs. General Gaines, who is regarded as the richest woman in America, has not yet succeeded in obtaining possession of her property in New Orleans, to which the Supreme Court of the United States declared her entitled about a year ago. For nearly forty years, Mrs. Gaines prosecuted her suit with unflattering patience, and the estate of her father, Captain Daniel Clark, to which she was finally declared to be the rightful heir, is estimated to be worth about $30,000,000. The land is occupied by nearly the whole city of New Orleans, and the decision of the court, therefore, is a serious inconvenience to a great number of persons. Owing to the peculiar circumstances of the case, Mrs. Gaines offered to arrange with some of the present holders of her property on equitable terms, but more than eighty persons have combined to bring suit against her, and have compelled her to go into court again. These suits will come up for trial before a Justice of the United States

The San Francisco Chronicle says: "It is now presumed that the Chicago party voted not to visit Virginia City upon it being ascertained that the country was not grape producing, and consequently no new brands could be sampled there" Would it be ungenerous to suppose that a similar reason accounts for their failure to visit Oregon?

To the Public.

IN THE "NEWS LETTER SHEET," UNDER DATE of August 7th, there is a reference to myself in connection with the unfortunate affairs preceding Mr. Miller's death, which does me injustice. I never told Gibson Mr. Miller "was the man who insulted his sister;" but at his request had sent for Mr. Miller that there might be some explanation of the complaint made by the Colonel. Those who know the relations that existed between Mr. Miller and myself would not suggest that I had accused him of any objectionable conduct. I think it best, under the circumstances, to leave the matter where the court left it, and let the future develop who were and who are the friends of Mr. Miller and his family.
